COMMISSIONERS' REPORT.

To the Citizens of Cheshire County:

The following report is submitted to you, by the County Commissioners, as required by the laws of the state, together with the reports of the other officers and employes of the county.

The addition to, and improvements in the court house were completed early in the year, and the county has now thoroughly fire-proof rooms for its records, and convenient rooms for its court and county officers.

The court house was completed at a cost of $33,548.25 and a balance left from the appropriation is to be expended for much needed furniture in the different offices.

Maplewood Home is still under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Whitman, and they together with the other employes in the home, work for the comfort of the people who are placed in their care.

There is a lack of jail accommodations at the farm and we hope to see some arrangement made in the near future to supply this need.

Each year the expenses of the county increase, and we see no way of reducing them, until some laws are enacted by the legislature to control their cause.

Religious services have been held in the chapel at Maplewood Home by Rev. H. J. Brown, and James A. Craig, M. D., has looked after the sick.

S. S. Quinn has been faithful in his duties as chaplain at the jail, and Charles S. Walker, M. D., has looked after the outside poor in the city.

Matters at the jail are in excellent condition, under the management of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lord.

The commissioners are in session at their office in the court house on the first and third Friday of each month during the year, and will be pleased to show the various accounts to any interested person.

DANIEL R. COLE,
FORREST W. HALL,
MARQUIS O. SPAULDING,
County Commissioners.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

Westmoreland, January 1, 1913

To the Honorable Board of County Commissioners and the Tax Payers of Cheshire County:

Gentlemen:—Inasmuch as the question whether a state workhouse shall be provided for the convicts now sent to the county jails and county farms, I feel that a few remarks of mine might not be out of place. Should such a provision as contemplated be made, it will prevent the counties from utilizing the convict labor on their farms, as has been the practice for many years. I think all of our counties in this state are vitally interested in this question. In 1912 there were 3,867 days' work by the convicts sentenced to our farm. In my own mind there is no doubt but that these men, taken as a whole, have been worth at least seventy-five cents a day and board, this gives us a labor value of $2,900.25. Should we employ this help at $25.00 per month it would cost the county $3,225.

It seems to me that this $2,900.25 is worth as much to the county of Cheshire as to the state of New Hampshire. Should we be deprived of this labor it must necessarily increase our pay roll $1,200 a year, as the pauper class, as a rule, are unable to engage in farm work. Not only this, but we should of necessity be deprived of help in many departments where we now utilize convict labor, much to our convenience and profit. I fail to see where there can be any advantages of a state house of correction over the present system of sending the police and justice court prisoners to the county farms. I do not believe any one coming before any superior court, should be sent to any county farm, but to the state prison, or to the county jail, there to be worked. A person who has committed a crime of such gravity that the court pronouncing sentence, feels justified in imposing a sentence of six months or a year should in no wise be sent to a county farm.

Should a law be passed creating a state house of correction, and presuming that it be located in Concord, it will be seen at once that the expense of committing prisoners will be greatly increased, as can be shown by supposing the 115 men sent to us from North Walpole, a distance of twelve miles from Westmoreland, had been sent to Concord, a distance of 75 miles, we should have a mileage of 8,625 miles to be paid for at 12 cents a mile, costing $1,025. While the cost of sending these men to Westmoreland would have cost only $165.60, showing that the expense of sending these men to Concord would be $859.40 more than it would be if they were sent to Westmoreland. Taking the 30 men sent to Westmoreland from Keene at a cost of $43.20 for mileage, would have cost $226.80 if sent to Concord, increasing the cost $183.60. Is not this an increased burden to the tax payers of Cheshire county, and for what good reason? It might be asked here if a man now doing time at our county farms is more of a criminal than the paupers with whom they come in contact that have many times done time for drunkenness, or others that have often been drunk but escaped the officers' hands. The question is, should we call a man a criminal,—too vile and vicious to associate with anyone outside of a prison wall? If so, where is your oft vaunted theory of reform? You will never reform a man so long as you teach him to feel that he is a thing too low (because he became intoxicated) to live under a separate roof from county paupers, provided the building be located on county property, thus driving him farther away from good influences. We have many worthy poor with us,—worthy persons that are receiving the benefits and comforts of our homes,—because of some unfortunate investment, or because of lack of good judgment, or it may be because of some undue advantage having been taken by a relative or professed friend, leading to the loss of their life savings. It may also be said that every county farm has its quota of dependents that have come from the class of men now doing time at our houses of correction.

If there is good cause why simple drunks (mind I am far from being in sympathy with the drink habit) should not associate with this latter class, is it not as necessary that there should be a better classifying of our paupers?

I believe there are very few instances where the convicts of our New Hampshire county farms are eating the bread of idleness or in other words, bread which they are not entitled to by reason that it has not been paid for by labor performed. There is much less idleness of prisoners confined at the county farms than of those at the county jails, and I think the commission appointed to investigate into the advisability of establishing a state correction, must have the jails in mind when making up their report. There is no need that any industry other than farming be established at our county farms as we can always find something to be done about the premises for those sentenced to hard labor.

I feel that a complete surrender of the convict labor to the state, will be an injustice as well as a burden to the counties. If a state house of correction is found to be advisable at this time, I should be in favor of a law being enacted that would require that all drunks sentenced for the first and second time, and not receiving a longer sentence than from eighteen to thirty days be committed to the county farm located within the county where the offence was committed.

Respectfully submitted,

ASA A. WHITMAN,

Superintendent Cheshire County Farm.

SOLICITOR'S REPORT.

To the Honorable Board of County Commissioners:

Gentlemen:—I beg to submit herewith my report as solicitor for the past year. The number of indictments secured at the April term of court was much smaller than usual, but three having been returned.

At that term of court John Lovering, alias George Butler, was indicted for murder of George Southwick, at Walpole, on December 23, 1911. Lovering was recognized at the time, but for some unaccountable reason, was allowed to escape, and although the officials of the county made strenuous efforts to locate him they were unsuccessful. A reward was offered and circulars describing the criminal were sent broadcast. Early in July, Lovering was arrested near Scottsville, N. Y., on a charge of attempted suicide and while held on this charge he mentioned that he had had some trouble in this county and had shot a man. The officer communicated with the local officials, extradition papers were immediately secured and Lovering was brought here and placed in the county jail. As there was some doubt as to the sanity of the prisoner, an examination was made and he was pronounced insane. By order of the court he was committed to the N. H. State Hospital at Concord.

Indictments were returned against Peter Mackey and Charles Sargent for larceny. They pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny of property of less value than $20.00 each, and both respondents were sentenced to the house of correction at Westmoreland for six months.

The only other indictment was one against George Hill for keeping liquor for sale. The charge against him was placed on file on the payment of costs.

At the October term:

Chester Palmer was indicted for burglary and pleaded guilty. Owing to the youth of Palmer and other circumstances connected with the case, the charge against him was continued for sentence.

Willard H. Priest was indicted for keeping intoxicating liquor for sale. The matter was continued on condition that he leave the state. The condition has been complied with.

Myer Finkelstein was indicted for keeping liquor for sale—subsequent offence. He pleaded not guilty. Owing to the fact that the jury was discharged early in the term, this case was not heard, but will be disposed of at the next term of the superior court.

George A. Purrington had three indictments returned against him for keeping liquor for sale. He pleaded not guilty and was placed under bonds. Before his cases came to trial he left the state, thereby forfeiting his bonds.

George W. Burpee was indicted for keeping intoxicating liquor for sale, and the matter is still pending against him.

John Connell was indicted for keeping liquor for sale—subsequent offence. Pleaded guilty and received a sentence of five months in the house of correction and a fine of $100.00 and costs.

Frederick Winnewisser, Paul Winnewisser and Harold Danser were indicted for assault with intent to kidnap.

The same parties were also indicted for kidnapping. Frederick Winnewisser, assisted by the other two respondents, came from Bellows Falls to Walpole and took Frederick Winnewisser's child away from its mother and carried it to New York, the mother and father being separated at that time. The parties were traced to New York and finally the matter was adjusted by the father returning the child to the mother.

Robert Jones was indicted for adultery. Pleaded nolo contendere. Was sentenced to pay a fine of $100.00 and costs and six months in jail, jail sentence to be suspended.

Mabel E. Leandro was indicted for adultery. The matter is still pending against her.

Charles Calkins was indicted was adultery. Pleaded nolo contendere and was sentenced to pay a fine of $50.00 and costs and to serve six months in jail, jail sentence to be suspended.

Mabel E. Durant was also indicted for adultery. Pleaded not guilty. She having returned to her husband, nothing further was done in the matter, although the charge is still pending.

Lizzie Charlie Dabo was indicted for the murder of her infant child. This is the case where the body of an infant was found in the woods on the Matthews road during the middle of August. At the time the body was found the officers had practically no clues to work upon, but upon inquiry of everyone in that section of Keene and Swanzey where the crime was committed, it was finally learned that a Syrian woman with an infant had left the train at Sawyer's Crossing in Swanzey a week or so before the body was found. This clue, which later proved to be the right one, was followed up and the respondent was located in Springfield, Mass. The woman was brought to Keene and placed in jail. However, between the time of the arrest and the sitting of court, she brooded so much over her affairs that she became insane and is now at the N. H. State Hospital at Concord.

During the summer, Harold Eastman, who was indicted at the April, 1911, term for larceny from the American Express Company, was located at Auburn, Maine, and placed under arrest. He has been brought to the jail in this city and is now awaiting trial at the April term of court.

As usual, during the past year there have been numerous cases brought before the police court for various offences. A large proportion of these were for violations of the liquor law.

There are no civil cases pending in the courts in which the county is interested.

Respectfully submitted,

O. E. CAIN,
County Solicitor.

CHAPLAIN'S REPORT.

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of Cheshire County:

Gentlemen:—I congratulate you in that you have the welfare of the inmates of the County Farm enough at heart to provide for them the services of a chaplain. I note this because some counties in our state have not done so.

I have performed these duties for the past year and held the regular services in the chapel on Sunday afternoons, and the attendance has been very good, not only by the inmates, but also the transients, that is, the prisoners. I think that perhaps the best work of the chaplain is done among this class, because these men, that is, the most of them, are not criminals and are ashamed of being convicts, perhaps for the first time, and an appeal to their better nature touches them.

It has been a pleasure to work with Mr. and Mrs. Whitman, who have done all that was possible to make this part of the work interesting to the inmates, and Mr. Whitman has helped very much in the singing at our Sunday services and Miss Bernice Whitman has willingly given her time and services as organist.

Before closing this report I wish to call to your attention the work of Mr. and Mrs. Whitman and helpers at the Christmas exercises at the home. This means an immense lot of work for which they receive no thanks and work which they might avoid if they so wished, but it was certainly thoroughly enjoyed both by those who received and those who gave. This is the spirit of Christ who gave himself for others.

Respectfully submitted,

H. J. BROWN.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

To the Honorable Board of County Commissioners for Cheshire County:

Gentlemen:—I herewith submit my report as physician for Maplewood Home for the year ending December 31, 1912.

Nothing of unusual importance has transpired that demands special mention during the past year.

There has been four births and fourteen deaths.
